स्वच्छ भारत अभियान
Swachh Bharat Mission

Date of Report : 18th October, 2014

For the implementation of Swachhata Abhiyan in view of creating awareness and sanitation in rural villages, the ICAR-Directorate of Research on Women in Agriculture (ICAR-DRWA), Bhubaneswar, organized Swachhata Abhiyan at a remote tribal Village Tarajodi in Shamakhunta block of Mayurbhanj district on 17th October, 2014. Two of the scientists of the ICAR-DRWA conducted the programme.

The programme was organized for the benefit of families dwelling in this remote tribal village living in unhygienic conditions. The programme started with taking of cleanliness oath in tribal dialect followed by cleaning of roads, common gathering place, drains and surroundings of potable water source . Bleaching powder was sprinkled along the drains and drinking water source. About 180 villagers including children, women and men from tribal farm families attended the programme and actively participated in cleaning activities.
